

FISCAL NOTE

SB 3062 - HB 3217

February 21, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires a student who has been suspended from attendance to remain at that student's normal place of residence during school hours or such student shall be considered truant.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant

Assumes an increase in local government revenues to the extent that parents of truant students who violate the provisions of this bill receive a punishment that includes a fine of up to $50 or five hours of community service. Such punishment shall be at the discretion of the judge. Any increase in revenues from fines is estimated to be not significant.
